Insurance Election Closes 4 o'clock This Afternoon.

MANAGEMENTS SEE VICTORY

Believed New York Life Will Win by 100,000 and Mutual by 20,000 to 50,000-Policy Holders Give Reasons for Possible Failure-Over 60 Per Cent Have Voted-The Tickets.

New York, Dec. 17 .- At 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the contest for control of the Mutual and New York Life Insurof the State will begin the tabulation of the votes that have been cast for members of the new boards of trustees. Both sides will have watchers, and every pre-

Careful canvass of both camps at a late hour to-night indicates that the policy holders' tickers are besteved to the main office. holders' tickets are beaten. Judging from the indications at present the New York Life administration ticket will get very nearly 100,000 majority, and the present administration in the Mutual Life will be successful by between 20,000 and

Although the officials of the two cor porations say that the vote will not be more than 60 per cent of the total policy holders, judging from all information that could be secured this evening, very nearly 80 per cent of the policy holders have voted.

Vote Heavy To-day.

According to the last figures given out by the officials, there are 977,441 policy holders in the New York Life, and 457,591 in the Mutual. All of these persons have been importuned to vote either way, and many have given proxies to the agents and administration officials of the two corporations which will be recorded as soon as the polls open at 10 o'clock to-morrow. It is with these proxies that the administration officials expect to be

The international policy holders' committee began to gather in this city this afternoon. While all are apparently sanguine as to the outcome, when pressed for a statement as to figures the members of the committee admit that they canno give any. They are also willing to make excuses as to why they may be beaten, and if it should happen that the policy holders' ticket is elected, the members of the committee will be the most sur-prised mortals in the city of New York. Yesterday afternoon, while the sale was in full sway, a large package was placed on the stand and the bidding was lively for several minutes, until it came to two women on opposite sides of the room. They became very much excited and, holding their other purchases in their arms, got up on their chairs to compel the auctioneer to heed their bids. This continued several minutes, while the price rose at two cents a step until the woman on the right side of the hall advanced her bid to "one-eighty," and drew a long breath of happiness as the auctionery, newspapers, magazines.
